

My name is Jakob and I live in a small village in Austria called St. Jakob.

I'm 15 years old attend to the 5B of the Stiftsgymnasium St. Paul.

Together with my parents I live on a farm.

On our farm we got some sheep but we mainly have fields and forests.

My parents' names are Ewald and Eva. Ewald works as a farmer and Eva as a teacher.

My favourite food is Lasagne.

In my free time I like playing computer games, meeting my friends, skiing, hiking or riding the bike.

Last summer I went to Rome with my aunt and to Stockholm with my cousin. Both places were amazing.
