

Hi everyone!

My actual name is Alexandra but almost everyone calls me Alex. I was born in December and at the moment I am fifteen years old. I attend Stiftsgymnasium St.Paul at which I'm in the ninth grade. I live in a flat in Wolfsberg with my parents and my cat.

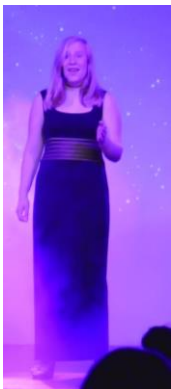

My family

My mum's name is Karin and she's a teacher, my dad who is called Johannes is an accountant. And there is another family member yet to be introduced: my nine-year-old, lazy cat, Kitty.

My hobbies

I would say that I'm a very "artsy" person which means that I love acting, singing and writing. I've been in various plays, sung on stage a couple of times and written a book and a short story which I won a prize for. Other than that I am obsessed with musical theatre (stuff like Hamilton, Dear Evan Hansen, Mean Girls, Heathers...) and TV-shows such as Doctor Who, Game of Thrones and Broadchurch and I can talk about them for hours. I also adore travelling and hanging out with my friends.

If my friends had to describe me they'd say that I'm a funny(and very talkative), nice, honest, creative and reliable person.
